

Monica Parekh

Vice President
Portfolio Manager
Senior Corporate Analyst

Monica Parekh is a Vice President, Portfolio Manager and Senior Corporate Analyst for American Century Investments, a premier investment manager headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. She is based in the company's New York office.

Monica is a member of the firm's Global Fixed Income Corporate Markets team and serves as a co-portfolio manager, contributing to the management of the corporate credit sleeves within the Global Fixed Income suite of strategies. She also provides analysis on corporate debt securities. Monica has been a member of this team since joining American Century Investments in 2019. Previously, she was a Fixed Income Analyst at BNP Paribas Asset Management. Prior to that, she was a Fixed Income Senior Analyst at HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. Before that, Monica was a Vice President and Fund of Hedge Funds Portfolio Analyst at Lazard Asset Management. She began her financial services career at JPMorgan Securities as an Equity Research Associate and later transitioned to a Fixed Income Associate. She has worked in the industry since 2004.

Monica holds a bachelor's degree in Biochemistry from Rutgers College and a master's degree in Business Administration from the Booth School of Business at the University of Chicago. She currently serves as Treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Friends of UNFPA, a non-profit organization that supports the work of the United Nations Population Fund.

