

Biography

Rene Casis

Vice President
Head of Portfolio Solutions

Rene Casis is a vice president and head of portfolio solutions for American Century Investments, a premier investment manager headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. He is located in our Santa Clara, California office.

Rene is a portfolio manager of exchange traded funds (ETFs) and leads the Portfolio Solutions team. In his role, he is responsible for the overall management and oversight of American Century's equity and select fixed income ETF portfolios. Before joining American Century Investments in 2018, Rene was partner and head of trading with 55 Institutional LLC, where he was a member of the firm's senior management team with responsible for oversight of portfolio management and trading execution. Previously, Rene served as an investment strategist and senior portfolio manager for iShares at BlackRock. Prior to the that, Rene was head of the Delta-1 trading desk at Barclays Capital and was a senior portfolio manager for the index portfolio management team at Barclays Global Investors.

Rene holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of California, Santa Barbara.