Balaji Venkataraman

Vice President
Client Portfolio Manager

Balaji Venkataraman is a vice president and client portfolio manager for American Century Investments, a premier investment manager headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. He is based in the company's New York office.

Balaji is responsible for representing portfolio management in communicating fixed income investment strategies and results to the firm's clients. Prior to joining American Century in 2022, he was a fixed income investment specialist at Wellington Management. In this role, he worked closely with fixed income investment teams as a product manager and to communicate their investment strategies externally with clients and prospects. Previously, Balaji worked as a senior project manager at Casey, Quirk & Associates, where he advised investment managers globally on business growth and product management strategies. Prior to that, he worked at two fixed income hedge fund managers, NWI Management and Claren Road Asset Management, as a trading assistant and investor relations professional. He has worked in the investment industry since 2003.

Balaji holds a bachelor's degree in commerce from the University of Virginia and a master's degree in business administration from the Yale School of Management.
