

Bernard Chua, CFA

Vice President
Senior Client Portfolio Manager

Bernard is a vice president and senior client portfolio manager for American Century Investments, a premier investment manager headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. He is based in the company's New York office.

Bernard is a member of the Global Growth Equity group and is responsible for communicating global and non-U.S. equity investment strategies and results to the firm's clients and consultants. He is also responsible for communicating the firm's sustainable investing capabilities to clients.

Before joining American Century in 2006, he worked as a product manager for the global manager research group at Deutsche Bank Securities. Previously, Bernard was a product representative and new business developer for non-U.S. distribution for UBS Global Asset Management. He also held several positions at American Express, including assistant portfolio manager and equity analyst at AEB Global Asset Management. Bernard has worked in the investment industry since 1986.

Bernard holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Ateneo de Manila University in the Philippines and a master's degree in economics from the University of California, Santa Barbara. He is a CFA® charterholder and a member of the CFA Institute and the New York Society of Security Analysts. He is also an FSA credential holder.

