

David Moore, CFA

Co-Director of Municipal Research

David Moore is a Vice President and a Co-Director of Municipal Research for American Century Investments, a premier investment manager headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. He is based in the company's Santa Clara, California office.

David Moore is a Co-Director of Municipal Research team and specializes in the analysis of investment-grade and below-investment-grade tax-backed municipal bonds. Prior to joining American Century in 1997, David was an Analyst with Keystone Investments. Prior to that, he was an Investment Analyst at Liberty Mutual Insurance Company.

David holds a bachelor's degree from the University of New Hampshire and a master's degree in Business Administration from Babson College. He is a CFA® charterholder, and a member of the CFA Institute and the Security Analysts of San Francisco.

