

Notice of Name Change

Use this form to change your name on your American Century Investments® accounts. You must attach a copy of one of the following:

- Unexpired REAL ID compliant driver's license or identification card. A standard driver's license or identification card without REAL ID markings will not be accepted.
- Unexpired government-issued passport
- Marriage certificate showing former and new names and date of marriage
- Divorce decree that states a name change was granted and includes a court seal
- Court order or other legal documentation referencing the former and new names (not an application)
- Social Security card

If you do not have the appropriate documentation, we will accept your form without it if you obtain a signature guarantee in step 6.

Review Your Beneficiary Designation

Now may be a good time to review any beneficiary designations for your account(s). In the event of a divorce, a designation of a former spouse may not be valid unless you re-designate your former spouse by submitting a new beneficiary form after the divorce is final. To manage beneficiaries, log in at americancentury.com. Or, if your account type does not permit online beneficiary management, download the appropriate beneficiary form and mail it to us.

Sign Your Name and Date

This form must be submitted along with supporting documentation showing your new name (marriage certificate, divorce decree, etc.). If you do not have legal documentation, you must have your signature guaranteed.

By signing this form, I certify that:

- I am of legal age.

Certify Your Tax ID

If you'd like more information about certifying your taxpayer identification number, please review the General Instructions on IRS Form W-9, which can be found at www.irs.gov.

FATCA Reporting - If you are submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave the second field below blank.

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting.

Exemptions Codes (Codes apply only to certain entities, not individuals that are exempt from reporting under FATCA)

Exemptions (see instructions in IRS Form W-9):

Exempt payee code (if any) _____ Exemption from FATCA reporting code (if any) _____ (Applies to accounts maintained outside the U.S.)

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number, and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person.
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification Instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

The IRS does not require consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
